2020-2021
Annual Report

From the President's desk

Dear Alumnae and Friends,
Last year gave Presentation Academy the chance to “spread compassion,” the theme for the 2020-2021 school year.

Throughout what was a tough year for many, Pres Girls and the community were reminded to live this motto out and treat everyone with kindness, compassion and respect.

Last year, the Class of 2021 spread compassion throughout the community, donating more than 7,000 hours of community service. They also succeeded academically, earning more than $6.88 million in scholarships, and were accepted to 63 colleges and universities, including historically black colleges and universities and other prestigious schools. More than a quarter of Presentation's graduates are staying close to home and sharing their talents with Louisville colleges and universities.

Thank you for spreading compassion during a difficult time through your generous giving to Presentation. Last year, Presentation's Tower Awards committee successfully put on the school's first virtual fundraiser, raising a record net revenue.

The Walkathon became a socially distanced “Danceathon,” raising funds for financial aid. Alumnae rose to the challenge once again through Alumnae Unite. Your support through all these campaigns helps us achieve Mother Catherine Spalding's mission to create a diverse community that promotes academic excellence and challenges young women to develop their greatest potential as leaders in a global society.

I am excited to announce Presentation's new endowment, which enables us to plan for a bright future. In the first year of the endowment, the stocks in Presentation's portfolio increased by 34% (vs. 29% for the S&P 500). The stock portfolio was carefully investigated by the senior theology classes to ensure investments were made to ethical companies. These investments ensure that we can educate all Pres Girls, even the economically vulnerable.

Thank you to our early endowment supporters for their compassion, including donors of the Colleen Dannaher Leadership Scholarship and The Class of 1964 Scholarships.

Pres celebrates 190 years of educating women leaders on November 21! Stay tuned for future announcements regarding our upcoming yearlong celebration.

Donate to our new endowment

To ensure our mission continues, Presentation Academy's Board of Trustees has contractually engaged Barlow Associates/Merrill Lynch to assist with the creation and management of Presentation's endowment. An endowment gift to Presentation provides a brighter picture for our future. There are multiple ways to give to the endowment, each aligning with the donor's particular needs.
